

COOKIE POLICY OF THE COMPANY F.lli Marinelli s.r.l. (European regulation 2016/679)

WHAT ARE COOKIES

Cookies are small text strings that the applications visited by the User send to his terminal (to the browser), where they are stored before being sent back to the same applications at the next visit of the same User.

Cookies are used to access the online services more quickly and to improve User's browsing by monitoring sessions, storing user information, uploading content faster, etc.

TYPES OF COOKIES

Cookies can be:

First-party cookies: these are the proprietary cookies used by the Site in order to allow the User to navigate more efficiently and / or monitor the actions exercised by the same;

Third-party cookies: they are cookies set by a site other than the one you are currently visiting in order to allow the User to navigate more efficiently and / or monitor the actions exercised by the same.

Furthermore, we distinguish different types of cookies:

- Technical and analytical cookies: are cookies related to activities strictly necessary for the operation and provision of the service (eg session cookies for logging in), cookies related to the activity of saving preferences and optimization (eg cookies to save the cart or language / currency choices, etc.), analytical cookies to collect information in an anonymous and aggregate form.

Technical cookies include:

- Session or Navigation cookies: they are used to track User activity on the web. They guarantee the normal navigation and use of the Site, allowing for example to surf more quickly, to make a purchase or to authenticate to access restricted areas, and are in fact necessary for its proper operation;
- Functionality Cookies: they allow the User to navigate according to a series of selected criteria (for example, the language, the products selected for purchase, etc.) in order to improve the service provided;
- Analytical Cookies: used to collect information on the use of the Site. The Data Controller uses this information for statistical analysis, to improve the Site and simplify its use, as well as to monitor its correct functioning. This type of cookie collects anonymous information on the activity of Users on the Site and the way in which they arrived at the Site and the pages visited. Cookies in this category are sent from the site itself or from third-party domains. Analytical cookies can be:
 - Analytical cookies of the first part: similar to the regulatory technical cookies if used directly by the owner of the site without profiling the User but only to collect information, in aggregate and anonymous, the number of Users and how they visit the Site for statistical purposes and to improve the performance of the Site;
 - Third-party analytical cookies: they are made available by third parties and are assimilated to technical cookies if the third parties do not profiling the User through the use of tools suitable to reduce the power of identification of cookies (for example, through the masking significant portions of the IP address) and without intersecting the information collected with others already available.

For technical cookies only the release of the Cookie Policy is required without the need to request consent. Disabling or deleting the same, by accessing the functions of your browser, could compromise the optimal navigation on this Site.

- Profiling cookies: they are used to monitor the User's web browsing and to create a profile of his habits:
 - First-party profiling cookies: installed by the Owner to create profiles related to the User in order to send advertising messages in line with the preferences shown during surfing the net. Given their particular invasiveness in the private sphere of users, the applicable law requires that the User, after adequate information on the use of the same, must express their consent;
 - Third party profiling cookies: used by third parties who access the information in clear text, therefore not in anonymous and aggregated mode, and cross them with other data already in their possession. The Site does not have direct control of individual third-party cookies. The User is therefore invited to check the information on cookies on the website of the third party.

The use of these cookies requires the acquisition of the prior consent of the User.

COOKIES INSTALLED

The cookies on this site are:

- Technical and analytical cookies (which are not permanently stored on the user's computer and disappear when the browser is closed) strictly limited to the transmission of session identifiers necessary for the safe and efficient export of the site.
- Third-party cookies, which may perform profiling and tracking of the User even without the knowledge of the owner. For more information, please read carefully the privacy policies of the individual services listed below.
